

TO USE FORCE IF NECESSARY TO RUN MAILS

Railroads Everywhere Begin- ning to Weaken Under Strain

Chicago, July 11—The railroad signal men today definitely announced that they would not join in the shopmen's strike. B. W. Holt, head of the union, said he had accepted an agreement similar to the compromise proposition on which the maintenance of way men had called off their threatened strike.

The signal men will open negotiations at once with the railroads in an effort to reach an agreement on the new wage scale. If that is not effective, they will bring the question before the labor board, and an award of a wage increase, if made, will be retroactive to July 1.

Mail Trains Must Run

Washington, July 11—President Harding has determined to use force, whenever necessary during the rail strike, to prevent any interference with mail trains or a tie-up of interstate commerce. From Attorney General Daugherty and other administration leaders it is learned that the president had decided on stern measures on the part of the federal government from the outset of the walk-out, because of the approaching paralysis of the nation's business as a result of the rail and coal strikes.

The administration plans for meeting the rail strike situation call first, for employment of additional United States marshals to guard the mail trains, and if that is not sufficient, to order out the federal troops.

Clash at Milwaukee

Milwaukee, Wis., July 11—Clashes today, in which three employees of the Northwestern railway were injured, brought a warning from union officers that the striking shopmen must refrain from violence and pay heed to the anti-picketing injunction issued yesterday by Federal Judge F. A. Geiger.

The three men, who are said to have been attacked and beaten, are John

BROTHERHOODS EXPECTED TO JOIN THE STRIKE

Parsons, Kan., July 11—The "Big Four" railroad brotherhoods will unofficially join the strike of the shop workers, M. O. Laisure, director for the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Engineers, declared today. "I feel confident that engineers, firemen, conductors, trainmen and switchmen are to be instructed that they cannot board a train that is not 100 per cent perfect," Laisure said, as he departed for Cleveland, where the board of directors of the union will meet tomorrow.

Rogers and Otto Bahke of Milwaukee and John Cherry, whose address is not known, Rogers and Bahke, guards at the Northwestern shops, were attacked this morning and a riot call to police headquarters was the result. The men, on their way home, were knocked down and beaten with clubs. A passerby turned in a riot call, and when the police arrived, the attacking party had disappeared.

Cherry, who had refused to walk out as a car repairman, was attacked last night. He said his assailants were men with whom he had formerly worked.

Railroads Feeling It

Chicago, July 11—Threatening to strangle the country's arteries between about pickers of a shortage of man and coal power, the railroad strike in its 11th day, and the coal strike in its 102nd, closed in upon the visibly weakening transportation systems of the United States today.

Curtailed of train service in New York, Illinois, Louisiana, Missouri and half a dozen other states, embargoes by carriers against the shipment of livestock, noticeably in Kansas City, and the estimate by road officials that an average two months' coal supply remains to keep the wheels turning, emphasized imminence of a crisis.

Outbreaks Feared

With an attempted settlement of the coal strike begun by the government, fear was that the railroad shop workers' walkout would result in violence. Militia of seven states stood ready to act against the first signs of sabotage. At Parsons, Kan., troops guarded the shops where non-union men began operations. Requests for state assistance have been received from several other points by Governor Allen. Dynamite and shooting in connection with the railroad strike in the Southern Pacific at New Castle, Calif., resulted in

Journal's Election Returns Accepted At Board Meeting

A rather eloquent tribute to the Journal's accuracy in news reporting was unconsciously voiced by J. M. Pfiffner, former member of the board of education from the Second ward at the board meeting in the council rooms Monday evening.

The auditing committee had gone over the returns of the election Monday to certify new members. It reported all returns in except from the Third ward, where Clyde Vaughn was elected over James E. Delzell, 20 to 24.

Mr. Delzell cheerfully spoke up: "Well, I know that Mr. Vaughn received 20 votes and I got 24."

Mr. Pfiffner replied, "Yes, and as long as the Journal reported it that way, it's all right."

Wives Back Husbands

The ranks of the striking railroad shopmen were held intact over the most critical period of the walkout, due to the support by the wives of the workmen, Bert M. Jewell, union chief, declared today.

Jewell said not a striker returned to work on the expiration of the railroads ultimatum, that they would lose their seniority and pension rights. The railroads admitted that only few came back. "Continuance of the strike, 100 per cent effective, is due to the powerful woman's auxiliary to the shopmen's union," Jewell stated. "This is the most powerful and best organized woman's auxiliary to any union in the world. We have been working on it for years and now its benefits are readily seen." Jewell, also stated the influence of the women had put a stop to rioting, as far as the strikers were concerned. Little violence has been reported from any section of the country since Saturday.

Railroads are finding it increasingly difficult to keep rolling stock in condition. Additional trains are being dispatched on many lines. Some roads operating into Chicago placed an embargo on all perishable freight, including livestock.

Troops Guard Shops

Bloomington, Ill., July 11—Under the protection of state troops, a train load of strike breakers were brought here today and placed at work in the Chicago and Alton shops. The shops had been closed since the strike and all traffic stopped. No demonstration marked the arrival of the new workers.

Section Men Quitting

Detroit, Mich., July 11—Unauthorized walkouts all over the country of maintenance of way men were feared at headquarters here today, it was stated by an executive of the grand organization. Reports were being received all over the country. W. C. Donne, secretary to Grand President Grable, stated, showing that the men were determined not to work under supervision of government guards and troops.

SOO RAILWAY SAYS TIME UP ASKS NEW MEN

Twenty-five Men Said To Be At Work—Live In Bunk Car

The Soo line railroad, following the ultimatum setting July 10 as the time limit for the return to work of the striking shop crafts workers, today officially declared their jobs vacant and opened them to new men.

In an advertisement A. L. Fillmore, master mechanic, made the following statement:

"Overstayed Limit"

"On account of the controversy between the labor board and the shop crafts, the latter have left their work and overstayed the time limit set by our president to return.

"There are vacancies with the following rates of pay: machinist, 70 cents an hour, boiler makers, 70 cents, blacksmiths, 70 cents, carmen, 65 cents, helpers, 47." The rates of pay which are offered are those which the labor board set as being in effect on all roads starting July 1.

It was evident, from preparations the railroad was making and the campaign which it has apparently started, that it was going ahead with the idea of ignoring the strikers and filling up the local crew with what men it could secure.

Twenty-five Workers

Mr. Fillmore, in a statement to the Journal, declared that there were about 25 men at work Tuesday, a number of local men and a few outsiders who had been brought here.

One "bunk car" was stationed in the yards here it was learned, and a few men who were brought from other places were using this car as a headquarters. Meals were being supplied these men also, it was reported. Whether any large numbers of outside workers would be brought here by the road was not stated by Mr. Fillmore. In connection with the advertisement, he said that the road would "rather have local workers."

Past 65 Years

Union heads here would not say whether there was any defection in the union ranks here. "If there are any union men who went back to work they are past 65 years of age and long employees of the road," said one union man.

Chased from Job, Report

Knowledge of the alleged intimidation of John Cepress, 324 Fourth avenue, by union workers was denied at the strike headquarters again Tuesday, as well as a report that Leo Pehoskey, a car repairer, was driven from his job in the Soo yards east of Wayne street at noon Monday.

Union leaders stated they did not know anything about the alleged threats made by workers to men who had refused to strike, and declared that if the names of the men were known they would be taken from the picket lines and reprimanded for their alleged actions.

Union Wants Peace

The union is making every effort to peacefully continue the strike and prevent occurrences of a disturbing nature, it was stated, by a labor spokesman.

Won't Say Much

John Cepress, who was alleged to have been threatened Monday morning near his home as he was preparing to go to work, was loath to make a statement when seen by a Journal reporter late Monday near his home. He said that he had been met by six men, and that he had "decided to lay off for a few days." Mr. Cepress asserted that he had not been a member of the union for six months and that he did not think the strike was any of his affair, for that reason staying at work when the strike was called.

Stones in Hands

Reports that Leo Pehoskey had been threatened while he was at work Monday about noon were learned at the Soo round house. It was stated there that Pehoskey declared a number of men had come up to him while he was at his post, and had used threatening language. Pehoskey, it was stated at the railroad offices, asserted that the men had stones in their hands.

Pehoskey was at work in the local yards again Tuesday, was accorded protection to the railroad shops from his home on South Church street by the road, it was said.

Receipts At P. O. In A Single Year Increase $10,000

Gross postal receipts at the Stevens Point post office for the fiscal year ending June 30, in round numbers, are $10,000 greater than those of the year preceding.

The increase is by far the largest for any one year in the history of the local office. This condition is attributed to a steady growth in the business, brought on in part by volumes of mail sent out by a number of large business houses here.

Figures compiled by Assistant Postmaster R. C. Porter show that the gross receipts for the year ending on June 30 were $74,294.73, compared with receipts of $64,333.04 for the previous year. The increase in dollars and cents is $9,961.69.

Other interesting statistics have just been compiled. There were sent out from the local post office during the past fiscal year, 10,865 pieces of registered mail, 4,407 c. o. d. packages and 15,003 insured packages. The number of money orders issued was 28,002, including 4,201 issued at the South side station. The number of money orders paid at the post office during the same period was 18,746.

RAINS HELPING CORN DO HARM OTHERWISE

Wives Down in Many Places, Torn- down Result in Property Dam- age and Deaths

Chicago, Ill., July 11—Heavy rains, accompanied by high winds and violent electrical displays, saved the mid-west corn crop and at the same time caused hundreds of thousands of dollars worth of damage. Telephone and telegraph lines were badly crippled, with wires down in many places.

The most serious damage was at Andes Lake, S. D., where one person was killed and 30 injured in a cyclone. Cloudbursts caused rivers and small streams to overflow their banks. Lightning killed one and caused other property damage in Wisconsin. General rains and storms were reported over the entire middle west.

VISITS WITH RELATIVES

Mrs. E. T. Johnson and son, Gordon Johnson, came over from Amherst Saturday for a visit with their sister and aunt, Miss Minnie Gasman. A normal school student, Gordon now makes his headquarters in New York city as efficiency engineer for the Western Electric company, one of this country's biggest industrial concerns. He has been enjoying a week's vacation at his mother's home.

SIXTY-FIVE APPLY FOR CHEST EXAMS

Many Patients Present Who Had Been Examined at Clinic Here Last Year

Sixty-five people had made application for examination at the free chest clinic up to noon Tuesday, 25 examinations had been completed before noon.

Many of the patients present this morning had been pronounced tuberculous at last year's clinic and wished to check up on their condition. Most of the reports were encouraging, but a few, who had failed to carry out instructions, were found to be losing ground.

Perhaps the happiest patients to leave the clinic Tuesday morning, were two little sisters, who at last year's clinic had been found tuberculous. Their happy smiles were a delightful contrast to their frightened, pathetic faces a year ago when they discovered their lungs were infected. After the clinic last year the girls had followed the examiner's advice and entered a sanatorium at once, remaining for six months. They returned home in February and are now at work. The examination this morning showed that both had healed lesions and were in splendid condition.

"Gee, this is better than gettin' my eighth grade diploma," was the exclamation of a fourteen year old boy, when told that his lungs, which at the clinic a year ago were pronounced suspicious of tuberculosis, had cleared up. He had made a regular business of building up his body during the past year, following the rules laid down at the clinic and his chest showed just what splendid success he had.

Sanatorium treatment was urged for one young woman, who was examined Tuesday morning. Her case was in the early stages and she was told that she had every chance to get well, if she started the right treatment at once. The fact that sanatorium care not only offers her the best chances of cure, but also is the best way of protecting her family from the danger of contracting the disease, was emphasized.

Ten of the 25 patients examined were charted under the tuberculosis classification, which includes healed lesions as well as active and suspicious cases.

Among those assisting at the clinic Tuesday were: Misses Ruth Marlowe, local public health nurse; Laura Porter, executive secretary of the Red Cross; Irene Harriman, Genevieve Love, Mrs. R. B. Smiley and Mrs. Lester Husain.

The clinic will be held at the court house again Wednesday.

Whole Herd of Cows In Portage County Intoxicated, Claim

One of the most unusual cases of drunkenness in the history of the Wood county sheriff's office was reported and verified when Under-sheriff Cliff Bluet of Wisconsin Rapids answered a call to the Robert Hanneman farm in Portage county near the Wood county line at Kellner. The Hannemans encountered considerable difficulty in putting their cows in the barn and the investigation showed that the whole herd was "stewed."

When he arrived there Mr. Bluet could smell moonshine on the breath of the animals, he declared. After an investigation he learned that a whole barrel of mash had been left in a nearby field and that the cows had partaken of it in such amounts as to become intoxicated. One cow was missing, another was "dend drunk" and could not be moved off the ground, five were so badly "pickled" that it was found unsafe to leave them in the barn and they had to be turned out in the field again, and another was so "bad off" that she collapsed in her intoxicated condition and could not be moved.

"The whole herd was staggering and they were in a worse condition of intoxication than any human being could get," Bluet declared. Samples of mash were taken from the barrel by the undersheriff. The fact that the spree occurred in Portage county left the Wisconsin Rapids sheriff's office powerless to act, it was explained, but the affair was said to have been reported to Portage county officials.

NEW ROOF NEEDED

Must Take Off Gravel On Lincoln School Building

Plans and specifications for the new heating plant and toilets to be installed in the McKinley school will be ready the latter part of this week, Clerk J. M. Pfiffner of the board of education reported at the board's meeting Monday evening at the city council rooms. The new board will probably cause bids on the school improvements to be advertised for.

Paul Hoffman, member of the board from the Fifth ward, inspected the roof on the Lincoln school building with Superintendent of Schools H. C. Snyder, and found that it will be necessary to put a new roof on the school, he reported. The present roof leaks. The janitors of the school can do the work, he said, taking off the gravel roof on there now, and placing a prepared roofing on in its place.

BLAINE NAMES ALLEGED TAX DODGING FIRMS

Starts Practice of Exposing Declared Delinquents In Home Town

Kenosha, Wis., July 11—Five Kenosha corporations withheld from state funds more than $280,000 due in income taxes during a three-year period, Governor John J. Blaine, Wisconsin, declared in a campaign speech here last night.

The Nash Motors company withheld more than $245,000 of this amount, Blaine declared, of which $144,000 should have gone to the normal school income fund, $80,200 to the soldier bonus fund, and several thousand dollars to the teachers' retirement fund.

Other Kenosha firms withholding income taxes due were enumerated by the Wisconsin executive as follows:

The MacWhyte company from soldier bonus fund $8,074, and from the normal school fund $20,162, total $28,236.

The Iserman Brothers company from soldier bonus fund $1,296, from normal tax $4,040, total $5,336.

The F. L. Wells company, from soldier bonus fund $449, from normal tax $791, total $1,240.

The Horden Store company, from soldier bonus $404, from normal tax $390, total $794.

More to Be Heard From

"These amounts we have already collected," Blaine said, "but there are other corporations in this city that have withheld large amounts which have not been audited. In fact, there are 8,000 corporations in the state which, when audited, will be required to pay taxes withheld."

Racing Next

Governor Blaine is expected to make public similar figures in regard to the manufacturing and other industries of Racine in a speech scheduled for that city tonight. He will follow it up throughout the state.

Other high spots his speech included: "The amount withheld by these corporations would have paid all the expenses of the general government of the city of Kenosha for two and one-half years; it would have paid its expenditures for highways and bridges for one year with a surplus of $25,000; the amount withheld would have paid all the public charities in this city for five years.

"The amount withheld is one-sixth of the entire city tax for the year, 1920.

No Secrecy There

"There is no veil of secrecy, no hiding of the assessment returns of the property taxpayers of this state. Their returns, showing the assessment of real and personal property, are filed with the town, city and village clerks, and are open for inspection. The state has not been required to hire any auditors to audit their returns, for the very simple reason that there is no necessity for it. The property taxpayers have not withheld one dollar in taxes. They have borne a disproportionate share of the burdens of taxation by reason of certain corporations having withheld millions of dollars from the state, county, city and village treasurers."

ROWBOAT CAPSIZES DROWNED IN LAKE

Young Man of Family Well Known Here, Meets Sudden Death At International Falls

Otto Flaig, Jr., a childhood resident of Abbotsford when his father was cashier of the State bank in that village, drowned at International Falls, Minn., Sunday.

In company with three other young men who had gone from Minneapolis on a camping trip, Otto was crossing to an island in a rowboat when a heavy storm came up and their craft was capsized. Two of the boys succeeded in clinging to the boat and were rescued three hours later, but Otto and one companion were drowned.

The bodies were recovered and were shipped to Minneapolis for burial. Otto was nearly twenty years of age and the older of Mr. and Mrs. Flaig's two sons. There is one girl in the family. They have numerous local friends who will deeply sympathize with them in their affliction.

Paying the International Debts in Other Property

France and England, owing the United States billions of dollars, do not repudiate their debts but merely fail to pay. Germany, owing billions to France and England, cannot pay them. None of the European countries has the money to meet its obligations. The Allies, if the United States will forgive them their debts, are willing to reduce their claim against Germany. That would mean the United States would be paying the German indemnity.

Divided on most things, Europe seems to be well united in the belief that the United States should stand the cost of the war. England and France say that we didn't come to their help as soon as we should have done, that they were fighting our fight and that we ought to pay, as our share of the expenses prior to 1917, the money we have loaned to them. Germany's complaint is based on the same thought. If we had not gone to the assistance of France and England, Germany would have won the war and those countries would now be paying indemnity to her, therefore, argue the Berlin statesmen, why shouldn't the United States, which caused Germany so heavy a financial loss, make up that loss by in effect paying the indemnity? But Uncle Sam doesn't see it that way. He loaned his money supposedly to honest borrowers and as any other loaner he wants it back.

The situation shows the collapse of the indemnity idea when carried to extremes. It was formerly the rule to exact the spoils of victory in territory. Napoleon was the first to employ on a large scale the indemnity also. The policy has grown until a nation now successful in war wants about all the personal property the loser has. It is impossible at this time to pay the international loans and the German indemnity in money.
A way out seems to be recourse to the older plan of paying in real estate. We could take from England and France their West Indian and Central American possessions as part pay for the money loaned them. Germany could cede to France the lands
west of the Rhine in lieu of indemnity.
France, now holding those lands as security, probably will have to foreclose on them anyhow. All of these countries are land poor as we say in America of the man who owns large estates of mortgaged lands and is without cash. The best way apparently is to dispose of some of the encumbered land and clear up the mortgages.

Did Our Farmers Really Gain?

The Wisconsin department of markets, in an article published in the Journal today, maintains that Wisconsin farmers profited $200,000 in 1921
through the new potato inspection.
The department says that the price ran from 5 to 15 cents more than it would have done without the inspection, and proves its point by showing that the past season Wisconsin potatoes sold at that price above Minnneapolis prices which were the same as commanded by the Wisconsin product in previous years.

But the department ignores the proportion of potatoes discarded because of the inspection. It says a little later on: "Adverse weather conditions reduced the crop so that this past year the shipments were lighter than for some years past. Last year about 19,000 cars were shipped, whereas the past year the shipments amounted to about 11,000 cars." While it is certain much of reduction in shipments was due to a poor crop in 1921, it is almost equally certain that much of it too was due to the strict grading which rejected the equally good potatoes of smaller size.
We have been informed by some Portage county growers that almost half of a load they took to market was usually rejected, and in some cases the rejected quantity was more than half.

Let each farmer figure it out for himself. Did the increased price for the accepted potatoes mean as much money for the crop as would a price 5 to 15 cents lower for the entire crop, so far as it was good and including the smaller potatoes? From what farmers tell us, we doubt that Portage county growers played even on the so-called benefits of the inspection which rejected the smaller potatoes, while a quantity of wholesome food was denied the consuming public in the cities.

Germany a Bankrupt

Germany has been obliged to confess herself a bankrupt. Unable to pay her obligations, she asks more time. For the existence of the obligations the present government is not responsible. They were created by the empire which sent soldiers into neighboring states to waste the country, and it is to repair in part the damage they did that the reparation is asked. Unfortunately a man and a nation can effect more in destruction than in construction, and the cities, and countryside, forests, mines and factories, ruined so lightly and freely, were worth far more than the industry of the German people can restore in one generation.

To put Germany on her feet, enable her to pay her debts and again become prosperous requires time and a high order of financing. Unfortunately Germany's financing of late has been of the kind Henry Ford and Tom Edison suggest for America—financing with the printing press. Germany has a tremendous amount of money today, and it is worth next to nothing. It is literally true to say that it is worth less than the paper it is printed on. Currency, paper money as it is called, is not money in fact. It is only a promise to pay which acquires its value from the government issuing it.
So long as the government is sound and actually does pay in money on demand, it is good. Otherwise it is worth no more than the I. O. U.'s of the individual who doesn't pay them when due.

Germany, now unable to pay, appeals to the United States and Great Britain, to persuade France to give her more time. Here is a situation in which this country must move carefully. If the United States suggests to France that France reduce her claims on Germany, France is likely to answer that she will do so if the United States will reduce by the same amount the money due her from France, and she may even hint that a nice way out of the whole annoying affair would be for the United States to advance as a loan to Germany the money needed to pay the indemnity. And that is about the last thing the United States wants to do.
While this country wants to be friendly to all the European countries, it must not allow itself to be tricked into a position from which it can extricate itself only by loaning billions it might never see again.

We can see no way out for Germany except to dispose of some of her assets. She might settle with France for a piece of real estate.
Then, with other claims within her power to handle, she should reorganize on a sound basis, giving up the idea that money can be created by the printing press, and the industry and thrift of the German people would do the rest.

For Law Enforcement but not too Much

A revulsion of public sentiment has caused the removal of the Junction City speed cop. It must have been strong to have made its influence felt from the outside on the people of the Junction who themselves were not victims of the officer's activities.

The public apparently wants law enforcement but not too much. Arrest of a man who drives through congested places at high speed always meets public approval. However, technical enforcement of law by arrest of those who, perhaps in places where there is no danger, have allowed their cars to exceed a speed of 15 miles an hour, seemingly is not what is wanted. Every man the Junction City officer took in charge must have been guilty of exceeding the speed limit, for they all pleaded guilty thereto, yet what the people favor is evidently a reasonable enforcement with prosecution only of those whose driving becomes a menace to others on the highway.

We hope that the change at Junction City does not encourage anyone to drive through the village so fast that he can't be seen in the dust.
The safest rule is to keep within the 15 miles the law allows. If you exceed it, you take your own chances;
you may not be molested, and then again you may.

How Hot, How Cold

The Confederate Veterans resolved at their Richmond convention that Abraham Lincoln "deliberately and personally conceived" the Civil war and was "personally responsible for forcing war upon the south." Then they rode up to Washington and called on President Harding, who on Memorial day had dedicated the beautiful Lincoln Memorial and had pronounced a masterful eulogy upon the Great Emancipator. How did the re-vilers of Lincoln feel as they accepted the hospitality of his successor and strode into his former home?

AUTOS BARRED FROM INFIELD
BY DIRECTORS

Spectators Not In Grand Stand
Are To Be Given Consideration

Directors of the Stevens Point Fair association, at a meeting Friday night at the court house, made many plans for the Stevens Point fair, to be held at the local fair grounds the week of August 14. Eighteen of 20 directors were present at the meeting.

Prices of admission to the fair grounds and other charges to spectators were set at the meeting. An admission charge of 25 cents is to be made for the night fair, and a charge of 10 cents to the grandstand.

Friday, Kids Day

Season tickets will be $2, which will include admission to the night fair.
Single admissions for the day fair will be 50 cents. Children under 12 will be admitted to the day fair for 25 cents and on Friday as usual, free.
The charge of admission for autos and vehicles will be 25 cents, season tickets 50 cents. Admission of persons to the infield was placed at 25 cents.

Decision of the directors was reached to exclude autos and other vehicles from the infield of the race track.
This was done in accommodation to the thousands of spectators who are unable to secure seats in the grandstand and in order to see the harness races must stand about the track.
With cars and other vehicles in the infield these spectators have been unable to see the horses in all portions of the course. With the autos excluded it is expected that the spectators along the track will be able to witness a good deal more of the races.
In order to handle the large crowds the grounds committee was authorized to investigate the possibility of erecting temporary bleachers on either side of the grandstand.

New Exit Planned

New regulations regarding the passage of cars in and out of the grounds were passed, which include the making of a new exit for vehicles. No cars or other vehicles are to be admitted through the Main street entrance to the grounds, all vehicles passing through the west entrance on Michigan avenue. Cars will be parked in the northeastern section of the grounds, and guards are to be placed to see that all available space there is taken. Exits for autos will be through a new road and gate that is to be constructed at the southeast side of the grounds, on Main street. This plan will eliminate congestion, and the possibility of accidents at the main gate.
Several of the directors complimented the manner in which the military police handled the cars and crowds at the fair grounds on the Fourth of July.

A ruling that should encourage inexperienced exhibitors and amateur live stock raisers to enter their stock for premiums was made at the Friday evening meeting. The entry fee on livestock was removed in this ruling, and a fee will be charged only those exhibitors who win prizes, which will be 10 per cent of the premium won. Those who do not win premiums will pay nothing.

Tear Down Old Barns

The buildings and grounds committee of the association was authorized to have torn down the old running horse barn near the north side of the grounds, and to have the old "pumpkin house" moved on a line with the present
horse barn near the race track.
The "pumpkin house" will then be converted into a horse barn with 16 stalls, each with an outside entrance. Sufficient lumber will be available from the old barns to construct additional shelter for race horses which may be needed, it is stated. Men are now at work making these changes.

Exhibits in Armory

It is planned to put the agricultural exhibits of the fair in the arena of the new armory stock pavilion building, while the cooking and farm work exhibits will be placed in the administration building now situated north of the grandstand. This plan of exhibits will make necessary the putting of commercial exhibits in separate tents or in other shelter, as there will not be room for them in the administration building or in the armory.

FORMER LOCAL RESIDENT
NOW IN THE CASCADES

M. J. Dickinson, for many years an employee of the Wisconsin Central railroad and later custodian of the Elks quarters in this city, is now working in the Cascade mountains, many miles north of his present home town of Snohomish, Wash., which he is able to visit about three times each year. He writes that "this is a great life in the mountains, when one wants a break of a life it is only necessary to go out before breakfast and get them.
Bear, mountain beaver and all kinds of wild birds are plentiful. I have a 12x16 lean to cabin, part of which is partitioned off for bedroom and kitchen. I 'hatch' it, but once in a while my wife and baby come up from Snohomish to see me. The forest fires are raging and I was almost burned out. I had my clothes packed and ready to go down the mountain when the fires around my location were checked. I would like to see all the old Stevens Point boys again."

OBITUARY

Mrs. Louis A. Krembs

An illness of eight months, during much of which time she suffered intensely, terminated fatally for Mrs.
Louis A. Krembs at 3:30 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, when she expired at her home, 504 Normal avenue. It was known to her family and many of her friends for several weeks that Mrs. Krembs could not recover, yet this did not lessen the sorrow all felt at her passing from earth.

Her illness developed early last fall and in November Mr. and Mrs. Krembs went to Rochester, Minn., for consultation with the Mayo clinic, but little could be done to bring relief.

Christine Rux was born in Germany
Oct. 19, 1861, the family emigrating to America when she was nine years of age and living successively at Chilton and Menasha. On May 8, 1885, Miss Rux was married in this city to Louis A. Krembs and they are the parents of three children, Chas. D.
Krembs, Delloyd Krembs and Miss Irene Krembs, all of this city. For the past few years Delloyd has been a student at Campion college, Francis du Chien. Other near relatives are two brothers and a sister, John Rux
of Woodruff, Wis., Jos. of Lansing, Mich., and Mrs. Louis J. Ule of Wisconsin Rapids.

Mrs. Krembs was a devout christian and for a long period of years took an active part in the upbuilding of St.
Stephen's congregation. She was essentially a home lover, giving every care and attention to the welfare of her household but always found time for acts of mercy and charity.

Veteran Carson Man Dies

George Sroda, one of the pioneers of the town of Carson, died at his home

Sroda, general merchant at Amherst Junction.

The funeral took place from St.
Bartholomew's church, Mill Creek, at 9 a. m., Saturday, with interment in the adjoining cemetery. Rev. L. Jankowski officiated at the church and grave.

wak officiating over the mass. Interment

The latter range from ten to one year of age. The deceased had been ill for a long time with pulmonary tuberculosis.

Samuel Swenson

Samuel Swenson, a prominent farmer of East Amherst, passed away at his home Monday, July 3, at 2 o'clock, after being confined to his bed about a week. For the past four years, however, he had been in very poor health. Born at Ashippun, Dodge county 48 years ago last November 11th, Mr. Swenson came with his parents to the town of Amherst when a lad of 13 and had since made his home on the homestead farm east of Amherst village. Until five or six years ago he had been actively engaged in conducting his farm, but ill health compelled him to give up his labors.

Deceased is survived by a wife, and six children, all at home, who are as follows: Remanda, Gladys, Sonia, Tena, Henry and Talford. One son, Carl, died three years ago. A sister, Mrs. A.
S. Anderson of Sheridan, and one brother, Andrew, who lives on the home farm, also survive him.

The funeral was held Thursday afternoon with services at the home at 1 o'clock and at the Old Scandinavian away at his home in the town of Car-his wife dying 19 years ago. The children are Andrew of Carson, Frank of Amherst Junction, Charles of Stevens Point, John of Carson, Mrs. Barney Galeska of Plover and Paul,

for several months with droupy and heart trouble.

Barred at Polonia

Mrs. Victoria Kozickowski, one of Portage county's oldest residents and who lived near Arnot for many years before she and her late husband, Frank Kozickowski, moved to Stevens Point ten years ago, died at her home, 727 Washington avenue, on the evening of July 4th and was buried Thursday morning. Services were held at St. Peter's church at 7:30 o'clock, the remains being then taken to Polonia and a second mass offered up at Sacred Heart church, followed by interment in the parish burying ground. Local pallbearers were Paul Woznicki, M. Friday, J. L. Frymark, Andrew Jankowski, John Gustowski and Anton Ostrowski. At Polonia the body was taken in charge by nephews of the deceased.

Mrs. Kozickowski was 71 years of age and enjoyed exceptionally good health until afflicted with stomach trouble a few weeks ago. She had been confined to her bed only a short time. Mr. Kozickowski, who followed the calling of a well digger for a long period of years, passed away in this city eight years ago. There are no children. One brother of the deceased, Jacob Zorowski, is a prominent farmer near Polonia.

Large Turnout at Funeral

Nearly every resident within a radius of several miles from his late home, and numerous others from all parts of the county, attended the fun-

day. Services were conducted at 9 o'clock by Rev. L. Jankowski, who ent at the last sad rites.

Expires at Wausau

Theodore Rasmussen of Amherst Junction died on Thursday morning at St. Mary's hospital at Wausau, where he recently underwent an operation. The body was taken to Nelsonville, where funeral services were held on Sunday. The deceased was born May 27, 1891, and was the son of Severson Rasmussen of Amherst

Mrs. Amos Ricker

Mrs. Amos Ricker, mother of Ben Ricker of McDill and a former resident of McDill and Lanark in Portage county, died Wednesday on a ranch in the province of Alberta, Canada, according to a message received by Mr. Ricker on Friday afternoon.
The cause of her death was not given.
It is not known when the funeral was to be held, burial to take place near the place of her death.

Mrs. Ricker was 97 years of age and was widely known throughout the west because of newspaper prominence she was given when, at 90 years of age, she "proved up" on a homestead in Montana, having complied with all the rules regarding homesteaders.

Mrs. Ricker left McDill 15 years ago, going to Clintonville to live with her son, Andrew J. Ricker. Four years later she went to live with her daughter, Mrs. Walter Betts in Montana, and they went to Alberta in 1920.
Mrs. Ricker was born in the Isle of Man, near the British Isles, and came to the United States 45 years ago, living at first at Royalton, in Waupaca county and later at Lanark and in Mc-Dill. Mr. Ricker died at McDill 16 years ago.

The sons and daughters surviving are: Ben and Andrew J. Ricker of McDill and Clintonville, respectively;
Mrs. Harold Mosford of Bellingham, Wash., and Mrs. Walter Betts of Alberta.

Mrs. Margaret McCadden

Mrs. Margaret McCadden, an early day resident of Stevens Point and widow of John McCadden, for many years an engineer on the Wisconsin Central and Soo line, died at Hanford, Cal., early last week and the remains was brought to Milwaukee Tuesday.
Funeral services were held there this morning. Mr. and Mrs. Earl Fer-

Mrs. McCadden went west a year ago last November and had since been living with a daughter, Mrs. Emmett Pittit at Hanford. She suffered an attack of influenza several months ago
and later was operated upon for apendicitis. Because of her weakened condition she failed to recover from the operation. Mrs. McCadden's age was about 58 years.

It will be remembered that her husband died very suddenly five years ago. He stepped from the cab of his engine and was seized with a heart attack, expiring within a few moments.

BOB'S NOMINATION
UP TO SOCIALISTS
GANFIELD CHARGES

Paulson Says Many a Soldier Under the Sod in France is There Because of Wisconsin
Senator

Racine, Wis., July 8—Conspiracy of Socialists to gain control of the Republican party, has been revealed, William A. Ganfield, president of Carroll college, intimated here last night, when opening his campaign for the Republican nomination as United States senator.

"Today we are confronted with an example of supreme apostasy of discontent, seeking a nomination at the hands of the Republican party, when he is receiving the support of the Socialist group," Ganfield declared.

Martin R. Paulson, of Stevens Point, candidate for nomination as secretary of state, approved at the state conference recently held in Milwaukee, said: "I can no longer be a good American citizen and still consent to the course pursued by Senator La Follette and Governor Blaine."

Prolonged the War

Senator La Follette prolonged the war, Paulson asserted. "Over in France," he said, "I learned that words of Senator La Follette were being used behind the enemy lines to strengthen German morale. During the war, La Follette never had a good word to say for the American people.
I believe there are soldiers under the sod in France, who never would be there, had he done his duty. His claim that he supported the war is an insult to every intelligent self-thinking American."

Higher Taxes on Rich

Ganfield, in outlining his platform, promised never to slacken zeal for farmer legislation. He pledged support to the movement calculated to eliminate class hatred and war between capital and labor. On the tariff, he said: "I like the idea of reciprocity. I also think the burden should be placed on luxuries and those most able to pay." He favors abolition of child labor, rigid law enforcement and payment of the soldier bonus.

Against Radicalism

Riley S. Young, candidate for nomination as lieutenant governor, said,
"If we allow radicalism to get into our state, like it did in North Dakota, we will rue the day."

Change in Rules
Principal Reason
For Rail Walkout

Repeal of working rules, some of which had been effective for 40 years, constitute a more serious grievance among the striking railway employes than reduction in wages, unsatisfactory as the second wage cut is, said James A. Vennie, leader of the striking Soo machinists, who, with Paul Moran, president of the carmen's union, was at the weekly luncheon of the Rotary club Monday.

The union leaders were present on invitation of President Clint Copps of the club. The strike is a big problem in Stevens Point just now and it was the thought of the club president that the way to get the view of the railway men on strike was to ask their own representatives to state it.

Mr. Vennie spoke for 15 minutes receiving close attention throughout and a hearty round of applause at the close of his talk. At the end of the meeting members of the club came forward to shake hands with the two visitors, both of whom made a fine impression. The general effect of their presence was to give a number of Stevens Point business men a better understanding of the problems of the men who are on strike.

Among the rules to which Mr. Ven-nie called attention was one providing pay of time and one-half for overtime on Sundays. Under the present ruling only single time is paid for Sunday work. "No man wants to work on Sunday," he said, "but lately, since this change in the rule, Sunday work is increasing, and they have been asking us to work about every second Sunday." He quoted a number of other rules changed to the injury of the men's position, and he said that it was these things, in connection with the second cut in pay, and not the pay cut alone, which caused the walkout.

The speaker took issue with the statement of the labor board that the strike is directed against the government. He said that under the Esch-Cummins law the labor board could decide disputed points, and after its decision was made, the side dissatisfied was left free to take whatever action it felt proper, which, in case of the men, could only be a strike, while for the railroads, it could be a lockout.

CHEESE INSPECTION SCORED BY MORGAN

Present Plan Harnafel to Wisconsin Producers and Helpful to No-body, He Says

Spooner, Wis., July 11—Cheese-grading and labeling regulations promulgated by the Wisconsin department of markets this year imperil the great cheese industry of the state, which produces more than half of the nation's domestic cheese, William J. Morgan, candidate for the Republican nomination for governor, charged in a speech here at noon today.

"I want to see vexatious regulations which hamper marketing and endanger the reputation of Wisconsin products withdrawn," Morgan said.

"Our newest commission, established last year, is responsible for these regulations. The head of this commission promulgated an order that all cheese made in Wisconsin must be inspected and graded by licensed graders and labeled with one of three prescribed brands, 'Wisconsin Fancy,' 'Wisconsin No. 1' and 'Wisconsin No. 2.'"

"The grades are determined chiefly by color, texture and flavor. All these qualities are relative, especially flavor, and you will readily understand that with over 2,300 cheese factories in the state a sizeable army of licensed graders is necessary, and close uniformity of grading is impossible. The prescribed brands must be put on the cheese before the paraffin covering is applied and so one can tell that a cheese that has every appearance of extra quality may not develop acidity and turn sour after it has been branded 'Wisconsin Fancy.'"

"It is plain that the sale of a sour cheese under the label 'Wisconsin Fancy' hurts the reputation of the industry."

PLOVER RIVER CLAIMS LIFE OF YOUNG MAN

Town of Sharon Resident is Drowned in Stream On Fourth of July

Theodore Zwicke, aged 25, who lived in the town of Sharon, Portage county, just south of Galloway, was drowned at 5 o'clock Tuesday afternoon in the Big Plover river, below the bridge and near the property of Stephen Wilkosky in the town of Bevent, Marathon county. The body was recovered at 7 o'clock Wednesday morning by a party of searchers.

Went in Swimming
After working on the farm of his father, Joseph Zwicke, until 3 o'clock Tuesday afternoon, Theodore and two companions, Joseph Lorbekchisky and John Schulte, went in an automobile to the home of John Bardski in the town of Bevent. Bardski is a brother-in-law of Joseph Zwicke. Shortly afterwards they decided to go in swimming. The three were fair swimmers. After swimming for a short time Lorbekchisky and Schulte missed their companion and began to call to him and also for help.

Darkness Halts Search
For several hours the river was searched for his body but it was not found and darkness halted the search. On Wednesday morning search was resumed and the body was found in 14 feet of water. It appeared that the drowned man had suffered cramps as the muscles of his arms and legs were contracted.

No Inquest Necessary

PLAN SEVERAL MONTHS' DRIVE THROUGH WEST

Mr. and Mrs. Guy M. Dulin of Milwaukee Leave Here for Tour to Pacific Coast

Mr. and Mrs. Guy M. Dulin of Milwaukee, son-in-law and daughter, respectively, of Mr. and Mrs. Chris Geisler, 618 Stronge avenue, started out Friday on an auto trip to the Pacific coast and return, which they expect will be of several months' duration.

Mr. and Mrs. Dulin leisurely drove to Stevens Point on Wednesday and Thursday from Milwaukee, making the trip in two days.

The trip of the Milwaukee couple is especially interesting, because of the automobile in which they will make the drive. It is of a special body construction and equipped with all manner of conveniences for highway travel.

The body, mounted on an ordinary Ford chassis, contains equipment for the making of two beds, capable of holding four persons, besides a complete set of utensils and conveniences to camp on the road. Mr. and Mrs. Dulin, during their entire trip, will not have to frequent a hotel or restaurant, as their car is so arranged that they can easily and in a compact way carry all the conveniences of a home.

The car on which the special body is mounted has been equipped with two auxiliary speeds, to be used for mountainous or hilly country and deep sand or mud. One of the speeds is lower than "low" on an ordinary Ford, and the other is an intermediate speed between "low" and "high."

On their trip Mr. and Mrs. Dulin expect to visit six of the national parks in the west and southwest. The drive from here to Seattle will be made over the Yellowstone Trail, and they expect to spend nearly a week in the Yellowstone National park. Other national parks which they will go through are the Mount Ranier, Mount Lassen, Yosemite Valley, Sequoia, Grand Canyon of the Colorado and the Mesa Verde preserves.

Mr. and Mrs. Dulin are planning as their objective the city of Los Angeles, Calif., which they expect to reach before August 21. Mr. Dulin is a former state commander of the Veterans of the Spanish-American War and the plans on attending the national encampment of this organization, which is to be held in Los Angeles August 21 to 26.

At the conclusion of this meeting, the Wisconsin people will drive through the southwest, and may visit San Antonio, Tex., and New Orleans, although definite plans to that end have not been made by them.

RURAL CREDIT SYSTEM PROPOSED BY MORGAN

Mortgage That Never Fails Due Suggested in Speech at Chippewa Falls

Chippewa Falls, Wis., July 8.—Proposal of a rural credits system that would amount to a "mortgage which never fails due," was made here last night to the Citizens Independent Republican club of Chippewa Falls by Attorney General William J. Morgan, candidate for the Republican nomination for governor.

"I favor an amendment of the Land Mortgage Association Act that will supplement the federal land bank system along similar lines under state supervision," he said.

Such a scheme, an "amortized loan" that would permit complete payment of principal and interest in 33 years, is a mortgage that never fails due, Morgan declared.

In advancing his proposal, Morgan declared himself as follows:

"We offer the people of Wisconsin a definite and concrete plan for long time farm loans. I would secure a law which would establish a long time farm credit system on the basis of 'never failing due mortgages.'"

"Manufacturers and merchants who turn their stocks frequently can meet their ordinary credit needs by short time commercial loans, and they can meet their capital investment needs by bond issues and preferred stock issues which are retired from profits. Most men familiar with farm credit needs have come to realize that to be equally served, the farmer's business requires financing on long term farm loans.

"As a definite and concrete solution of the farm credit problem, I advance an amendment to the Land Mortgage Association Act so that with simplified procedure to insure promptness in passing upon the applications for the loans, it will supplement the federal Land Bank system along similar lines under state supervision.

"The one principle that must be recognized as necessary and adopted is that of amortization of the principal of the loan. The amortized loan that permits of complete payment of principal and interest in 33 years is a mortgage that never fails due. Under the amendment I advocate, it will be possible to afford such credit to settlers that new farms can be developed in our northern agricultural lands and paid for out of the proceeds of the farm while it is being improved and built up. And the older settlers' requirements will be served as well.

"Many valuable farms in southern Wisconsin will pass into the tenant farm class without some such plan as I propose. We want to make it possible for the boys and girls to stay on the home farm instead of moving into newer sections, or out of the state.

"Let's keep our boys and girls at home. When the owner of a valuable Wisconsin farm now wants to retire, he cannot sell his farm to his son or son-in-law because the young man is unwilling to assume a great burden in the form of a mortgage due before he can hope to pay it out of the profits of the farm. Let him buy it under this plan and he can pay for it out of the proceeds of his farm.

"Such a plan of rural credits can be safely conducted upon a basis of 65 per cent of farm improvements, and instead of a tenant, the retired farmer will have his own son and daughter or daughters on the old farm."

It will have six rooms, and two baths, and be equipped with all modern improvements, including furnace heat, light and gas. Concrete will be laid on Spruce street this season and when the work is completed its desirability will be greatly improved.

KINDLY TREATMENT URGED FOR BOSSIE

Hints for Profitable Dairying Contained in Bulletin Prepared for Farmer

Madison, Wis., July 7.—"Mr. Farmer, you've got to treat our bossie right."

This is the substance of a bulletin entitled "Profitable Dairying in Northern Wisconsin," issued this month by the college of agriculture of the state university here.

"It will pay every farmer in the state to keep one or more cows, providing he can insure profitable milk production by treating it right," the bulletin says.

"A cow is well cared for when she is treated like the invited guest or friend one entertains and feeds in one's home," it says. In part, it continues:

"Rough treatment causes a cow to reduce greatly the amount of milk produced.

"Cowsheds need not be expensive, but they must be warm and comfortable.

"A cow needs at least one acre of pasture, free from weeds and well seeded to grass, for the average grazing season. In many seasons and under many conditions, she will need much more forage. This in addition to winter feed.

"If one can grow grains like corn, barley and oats to feed the cow, so much the better; if not, it will pay to buy what is necessary to make a good mixture.

"Cows should be fed 15 pounds of hay each day when pasture is not in season.

"Treat cows gently at all times and prevent excitement or abuse of any kind from running cows to pasture, loud talking, barking dogs or any mistreatment.

"It pays to insist upon kind treatment, and so far as possible the same person or persons should care for the cow and do the milking from day to day."

DYNAMITING FISH BEFORE FATALITY

New Version of Drowning in Plover River Given by Witnesses of Tragedy

Theodore Zwicke of the town of Sharon, who was drowned in the Big Plover river in Marathon county on July 4, lost his life when he fell from a log from where he had been dynamiting fish, according to statements of John Schulte and Jos. Lorbekchisky, who witnessed the tragedy.

According to statements of the two men, which were voluntarily made to Coroner Wm. C. Mellahn at Wausau they were unacquainted with Zwicke but were attracted to the river and a bridge nearby, by explosions of dynamite. They saw Zwicke standing on a log and believe that he had been using the dynamite. He suddenly lost his balance, reached for a branch of a tree overhead and then plunged into the water. An effort was made by the pair to rescue him but in this they failed.

It was at first reported that Schulte and Lorbekchisky had gone to the stream with Zwicke and that the three were in bathing at the time of the drowning.

SOUTHERN WISCONSIN DROUGHT IS BROKEN

Crops Generally Throughout the State Are Reported To Be In Good Condition

Madison, Wis., July 10.—An embryo drought which was beginning to endanger crops in southern Wisconsin was broken by the rains of the middle of last week, Joseph A. Becker, state agricultural statistician, reported in his weekly crop progress report today. Crops were benefited generally by the rains, he said. "Corn, which has been held back by cool weather and lack of soil moisture, is now just about up to average," he declared.

Outs are well headed, but straw is shorter than was expected. Rye is practically ripe, some fields having been cut already. The rye crop will be heavy and of good quality. Timothy and clover are being cut generally in the northern counties. Some hay was injured in the swath by the rains.

Potatoes, with excellent stands, were bettered considerably by the rains. Early canning peas yielded a heavy harvest, while late varieties were injured somewhat by soil conditions. Sugar beets improved during the week. The cabbage acreage is large and the crop is in good condition. Tobacco in average condition. Cranberry prospect much above average.

Pastures are becoming scant in southern counties. Livestock continues in good flesh.

The formal program was abandoned and instead a number of readings and several musical selections were enjoyed during the afternoon, those taking part including Rev. Holder of Athens, Miss Held of Merrill, Rev. Paulsvet of Wisconsin Rapids and Miss Laura Spindler of this city.

Ladies of the Friedens congregation served dinner, and supper in the church dining room, large numbers of people partaking.

RAISES BIG POTATO FAR AHEAD OF SEASON

Charles A. Horton of Waupaca last week exhibited a potato of early variety, taken from his garden, which measured 9 1/2 by 9 1/2 inches. Walter C. Baldwin, who saw the specimen and who has purchased potatoes at Waupaca for more than 40 years, could not remember when any one produced a potato of its dimensions in that city or vicinity as early in the season. A big potato crop is predicted for Waupaca county.

'DARK HORSES' WIN PLACES ON SCHOOL BOARD

Copps Beats Bates in First and Vaughn Wins Over Del. sell in Third

BOARD OF EDUCATION
First ward—Mrs. J. E. Hegg, *C. W. Copps.
Second ward—J. M. Pfiffner, F. A. Neuberger.
Third ward—Mrs. F. N. Spindler, *Clyde Vaughn.
Fourth ward—F. J. Jernak, *Dr. E. B. Naborski.
Fifth ward—Paul Hoffman, G. A. Swanson.
Sixth ward—Alvin Pike, *Mrs. Gertrude Parrish.
* New members.

There were at least two surprises in results of school board elections last week, "dark horses" winning out in the First, Third and Sixth wards, while a hot contest in the Second ward resulted in F. A. Neuberger being returned victor by a majority of 90 votes over T. I. McNamara. In this latter ward 258 ballots were cast during the hour between 7 and 8 o'clock, nearly fifty voters being in line when the polls opened.

Eleventh hour candidates were secured in the First and Third, C. W. Copps easily carrying off honors in the former precinct while Clyde Vaughn won the Third ward election by two votes.

Small Vote in Sixth
Only ten electors turned out in the Sixth ward and because of this apathy it was an easy matter to defeat the present incumbent, Arno Viertel. By a plurality of one vote in a three-cornered contest, Mrs. Gertrude Parrish was declared eligible to the two year term.

Detailed results from the several wards are as follows:
First—Mrs. J. E. Hegg, chairman; Mrs. J. D. Curran, secretary; Mrs. F. A. Krenbus and Miss Irene Harriman, tellers. Total number of votes cast, 106, of which C. W. Copps received 90 and W. G. Bate, 16.
Second—Mrs. C. E. VanHecke, chairman; R. B. Ahan, secretary; Misses Margaret Love and Laura Martin, tellers. Number of votes cast, 258, divided as follows: F. A. Neuberger, 174, T. I. McNamara 84.
Third—W. E. Marsh, chairman; Mrs. C. W. Swan, secretary; B. V. Martin, teller. Whole number of votes cast, 50, of which Clyde Vaughn received 26 and Jas. E. Delzell 24. Mr. Delzell is a retiring member of the board, serving for the last two years.

Fourth—Jos. Frymark, chairman; Bernard Mosey, secretary; Ben Zynda and Edward Molisk, tellers. Twenty-five votes cast, all for Dr. E. B. Naborski, who succeeds Dr. L. P. Pasternacki, president of the board, who declined re-election.
Fifth ward—Paul Hoffman, chairman; A. R. Redfield, secretary; John E. Leahy, teller. Whole number of votes cast, 16, of which G. A. Swanson received 15 and John H. Finch 1.
Sixth—Alvin Pike, chairman; Mrs. Ed. King, secretary; Mrs. W. J. Dumbleton and Mrs. L. King, tellers. Result of ballot: Arno Viertel 3, Dell King 3, Mrs. Gertrude Parrish 4.

MARRIAGE LICENSES FEWER THIS YEAR

June Totals in 1922 Fail to Come up to Number in Same Month a Year Ago

What's the reason for the decline in the number of marriage licenses issued at the office of County Clerk A. E. Bourn in June of this year as compared with June of 1921?
Miss Ruth McCallum, who plays the part of helper to the bashful swains and blushing brides-to-be who visit the clerk's office in quest of licenses to wed, can't tell why. She doesn't know, she says.
Here are the facts: During the period from January 1 to June 30 of 1921, there were 142 marriage licenses issued. In the corresponding period of 1922, the number issued dropped to 102. In June, 1922, 37 licenses were issued, while in 1921, there were 41.

FIRST NEW POTATOES BROUGHT TO MARKET

John Pionek Is Farmer To Bring In Earliest "Spud" Of The Summer

The first potatoes grown in Portage county in 1922 were marketed on the square Thursday by John Pionek of the town of Carson.
The new potatoes are 10 days earlier than the first potatoes brought in last year. The first home grown spuds were brought to the local market in 1921 on July 16.
Mr. Pionek's potatoes are small but seemed to be of a good quality. He asked $3 a bushel for them and had about five bushels to sell.

Carnival Ordinance Repealed by Council To Assist the Moose

As an expression of good will toward the Moose, who are building a new building and need the money, the council on Wednesday night repealed the carnival ordinance. This will enable the mayor to deal with the carnival. It will be held at the fair grounds and proceeds will go to the Moose.
Aldermen, while not favorable to carnivals generally, decided to let this one in on the Moose account. When the carnival is over, the ordinance will be passed again.
All the aldermen voted for the temporary repeal.

FIRST FIREMAN TO BE RETIRED

Application for Alexander Love, in Department for 27 Years, Received by Council

The first pension under the firemen's pension act in Stevens Point is about to be granted to Alexander Love, member of the local department for 27 years and now stationed at No. 2 house. Mr. Love, who has this long record of faithful service for the city, has been in ill health for several months and finally has been obliged reluctantly to conclude that he will be unable to return to work. His application for retirement came before the council Wednesday night and was referred to the city attorney who will take it up with the firemen's pension board, consisting of Mayor J. N. Welshy, Controller George L. Rogers, Treasurer John Haka, and Firemen Herman Krenbus, Tom Helminski and Charles E. Leahy. Action will be purely formal as there is no question of Mr. Love's right to a pension under the law.

The retiring fireman will receive half of his regular pay. At this time firemen get $75 a month and $50 bonus. The bonus is not considered in computing the pension, so Mr. Love will get half of the regular wage, entitling him to $37.50 per month.
The pension fund is kept up by assessments on the firemen's pay, gifts to the department and the percentage of fire insurance premiums the companies pay to the city. As the interest on the fund is now large enough to pay at least one pension, the fund will still be increased by the insurance money each year. Several of the other firemen are also eligible to retirement under the law at any time, but as all are in good health, no other retirements for the present are expected.
On motion of Alderman T. E. Cauley the council also voted Mr. Love his salary during the two or three months he has been ill. The alderman said that a man who had given almost 30 years of his life to the city was deserving of that much, and his associates agreed with him.

IOLA CELEBRATES WITH A HOMECOMING

Thousands of People in Attendance at Program and Baseball Contests

More than ten thousand people are reported to have attended the Fourth of July celebration at Iola. The affair was in the nature of a homecoming and people from all parts of the state were in attendance. The celebration was put on by the local parent-teachers' association to raise funds for the construction of a new gymnasium.
The usual parade, contests, games, dancing, and program were featured during the day. Two baseball games were played. In the forenoon Iola defeated New London in a 1 to 0 game. In the afternoon Waupaca defeated Manawa 2 to 1. Both games were errorless and showed up a league brand of baseball.

LOCATES IN CHIPPEWA

Dr. Nedry Takes Over Practice of Friend Who Met Tragic Death

Dr. C. J. Nedry, who has been associated with Dr. G. H. Lawrence as an eye, ear, nose and throat specialist for the past two and one-half months, left on Wednesday with his family for Chippewa Falls, where he will at once take over the practice of the late Dr. C. W. Wilkowski, specialist there who lost his life by drowning 10 days ago.
Dr. Nedry was a personal friend of the late Dr. Wilkowski and worked for him several months last summer when he was ill. Dr. Wilkowski's tragic death occurred in Round Lake when his canoe suddenly capsized while he was fishing. Weakened by the illness from which he had just recovered, he was unable to save himself. His physical condition was attributed to being severely gassed overseas during the World war.

FIND COUNTY AGENT DOES VALUABLE WORK

His Services in Grant County are Estimated as Giving Benefits of $12,000 a Year

Lancaster, July 7.—How much is a county agent worth?
Perhaps Grant county has the answer. In the annual report of the county board the county agent's worth is estimated at benefiting the county nearly $12,000 in a very direct way. And there are many other indirect benefits upon which a money value cannot be placed.

Poultry demonstrations in culling out the non-laying hens were estimated as worth $2,800 to the farmers who attended the demonstrations. An intensive spraying campaign was waged in the county and as a result six thousand trees were sprayed. The benefit is estimated at least one dollar a tree, or a total of $6,000.

Seventy-five Grant county boys and girls were enlisted in club work and it is estimated that each one produced at least $15. The total benefits from club work were estimated at $1,125. In a liming campaign the soils of 100 farms were tested and the estimated benefits were $10 a farm, or a total of $1,000. Miscellaneous benefits were estimated at $1,000. The total estimated at $11,925.

"The dollars and cents value of the county agent will increase, each succeeding year will see the original benefits are multiplied not only on the farm of the person originally helped, but upon other farms nearby," declares the report.

One of the outstanding features of county agent work was the purchase of spray outfits and spray materials. Grant county is now one of the leading fruit producing counties and will continue to increase the output of quality fruit.

Grant county has a busy agent. A summary of the activities of the county agent for the year shows:

Number of miles traveled, 5,861; 29 orchard demonstrations; 28 poultry demonstrations; 66 meetings, 25 community meetings, 147 meetings of all kinds; three communities organized; 1,012 calls at the office; 7, 204 letters written; 162 calls for orchard work, soy beans, and 81 miscellaneous farm calls.

Raise 'em The FUL-O-PEP Way

The Ful-O-Pep Way of Feeding chicks has changed the old expensive "grain feeding way" and has proven to poultry raisers that the old method of grain feeding is all wrong. The Ful-O-Pep Way of feeding gives you 1 pound of gain at cost of 2 pounds of feed. Instead of only 1 pound of gain to each 4 pounds of feed, which is the basis of figuring cost of production arrived at by experiment stations covering several years experiments with grain feeding. Why continue to feed this old expensive way when the Ful-O-Pep Way will give you the same gains with only half the feed?

FUL-O-PEP GROWING MASH

Costs Less Per Pound of Gain Made Than Any Other Feed

The Ful-O-Pep Way consists of feeding Ful-O-Pep Growing Mash from the very start—continuously keeping it before your birds all the time. Ful-O-Pep Growing Mash, because of the high feeding value of its Oatmeal, Fish and Bone contents goes twice as far as grain feeds—every ounce is digested by chicks' delicate digestive organs—there is no waste and when compared with results cost only half as much in pounds of feed consumed for gains in pounds of meat produced. Furthermore, your losses from bowel and digestive troubles that arise from feeding hard indigestible grains, will be very much less and your flock will be of even growth and development. Give The Ful-O-Pep Way a trial this season—it will reduce your feed costs and materially increase your profits.

Candidate for Congress Announces Platform On Which He Runs

Making a single-handed campaign for the Republican nomination for congress in the Eighth congressional district, Mayor John N. Welsby is receiving assurances of support from every county. It is his purpose to visit every county and to meet as many of the voters as possible before primary day.

The mayor is known as a fighter. He is the kind of man who accomplishes what he undertakes, and though he realizes he has a hard contest ahead, he is attacking it as cheerfully and as confidently as he did the hard city problems which have been solved in the past two years.

"I was a railroad employe for 22 years," said the mayor, "and I know what the railroad worker has to contend with. I am also willing to set the limit in helping the farmer and want to be quoted as right out in the open in favor of giving the soldiers their bonus now, not some time in the distant future."

Mr. Welsby gave out the following platform:

"First of all—I have faith in my country and its people."

"Second—I believe in accomplishments, not promises."

"Third—I believe that a man can attain what he goes after if he is sincere and has faith in himself and his cause."

"Fourth—I am a firm believer in co-operation and efficient personal efforts."

"Fifth—I am a friend of the farmer and the laborer and will at all times use my best efforts and energy to serve them."

"Sixth—I am a friend of the soldier and am in favor of prompt enactment of legislation providing for liberal adjusted compensation for world war veterans."

"Seventh—if elected I feel that I have the ability to be the representative of all the people all the time."

BERT FOX ELECTED SCHOOL TREASURER

Women Present At Annual Meeting and Two Were Candidates for Office

(By Special Correspondent)

Meehan, Wis., July 8.—School meeting Monday night was well attended and much interest was shown in the election of officers and arranging the school for the ensuing year.

Four candidates were up for the office of treasurer. Bert G. Fox won on the second ballot. It was voted to have nine months school and to make some needed repairs. Several ladies were present and two were candidates for office.

Rain Was Needed

The rain came Friday just in time as it was getting very dry. Early potatoes suffered badly.

Blueberry pickers have been plentiful for a few days. They find all they get south of here on the low lands and down in the Ten-mile creek country.

Liked Celebration

The celebration at Stevens Point drew a large crowd from here. All agree in saying that the Legion knows just how to get up something interesting.

Haying and rye cutting and potato bug fighting are now occupying the farmers' attention. Several parties are making hay down in the drainage district, where the hay is said to be quite good.

Many old friends here were pleased to hear that Algie Bourn is rapidly recovering from his recent illness.

The monthly meeting and banquet of the Sunday school will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred B. Fox Thursday night, July 13, to which all who feel an interest in the Sunday school are cordially invited.

COMMITTEE APPOINTED

Will Investigate Religious Instruction For Local Students

Investigation of the feasibility of giving religious instruction to local students of public schools is to be carried out in Stevens Point by a committee appointed at the union church meeting of members of the congregations of the Presbyterian, Methodist and Baptist churches at the Presbyterian church Wednesday evening.

Members of the committee are Rev. R. A. Barnes, Rev. C. S. Pifer, Rev. James Blake and Mrs. J. W. Pratt and Mrs. F. M. Playman. The plan of the committee is to give religious instruction to public school pupils two hours each week, the work to be done at the various churches in the city.

A program of interest to the 100 or more persons present at the meeting was carried out, including the dramatization of three familiar bible stories by pupils in the daily vacation bible school which was recently ended.

HIGH YALTE IS PLACED ON INCREASE IN THE PRODUCTION OF MILK

Prairie du Chien, July 7.—Three hundred eleven pounds of milk are going to be worth $85,000 to Crawford county.

That is the estimate placed upon 311 pounds of milk by M. L. Wright, county agent here. "If we could increase the production of each cow in our county 311 pounds of milk a year, that is the value they would bring us."

"Cow testing associations point the way for our farmers," declares Wright. "By increasing the production of our cows this small amount we expect to be able to pay our taxes from the increase. Test breed and weed, to cull out the unprofitable animals, is the solution. A cow testing association will do it."

"All this talk about not paying to feed the cow properly is bunk," says Wright. "The right kind of an animal feed properly will enable any farmer to meet his taxes with a smile." He is organizing several cow testing associations in his county this year.

POTATO INSPECTION GAIN TO THE FARMER

Department of Markets Says That It Meant a Profit of $200,000 to This State

That the farmers and dealers in Wisconsin were financially benefited to the extent of $200,000 by the potato grading and inspection work is the statement of B. B. Jones of the department of markets in giving a review of the 1921-22 potato season.

The figure, given is based on a comparison of prices of potatoes on the Chicago market which is the determining factor in quoting prices for Wisconsin potatoes.

Comparative Prices

The department makes this statement: "Grading and inspection of potatoes as carried on under the department of markets has meant much to the state's potato reputation and this was reflected the past year in price comparisons with other states. In past years before state grading and inspection was in vogue in the state, Wisconsin potatoes sold on a par with Minnesota potatoes on the Chicago market. The United States department of agriculture reports show that throughout the greater part of this past season Wisconsin potatoes brought from 5 to 15 cents per hundredweight on the Chicago market more than Minnesota potatoes which were not protected by compulsory state grading and inspection such as the department of markets carried on in Wisconsin. An average increased price of five cents a hundred pounds on the season's shipments meant approximately $200,000 more to the farmers and dealers. In past years Idaho potatoes sold on the Chicago market for 25 to 30 cents per hundredweight more than Wisconsin potatoes due largely to the fact that they had a reputation for being a well graded product. This past year Wisconsin potatoes sold nearly on a par with Idaho stock. The same general comparison can be made with Michigan potatoes. Growers and dealers over the state generally concede that the grading and inspection work, which was carried on with about $14,000 of the department of market's appropriation, has proved to be of great financial benefit to the industry as a whole."

Crop 60 Per Cent

"In 1921 there was planted 315,000 acres of potatoes as compared with 308,000 in 1920. Adverse weather conditions reduced the crop so that this past year the shipments were lighter than for some years past. Last year about 19,000 cars were shipped where, as the past year the shipments amounted to about 11,000 cars. Shipments were heaviest in October, the November and December shipments being extremely light. Large quantities were held by farmers for a high spring market but this did not materialize as other states had such large crops that all markets were well supplied and prices remained low. Those who held this past year were disappointed and some large losses due to holding have been reported."

Quality Good

"The quality of the stock this past year was good. Losses from disease and frozen stock were generally light and potatoes were of good size excepting in one or two districts which usually run heavy to small sized stock. Better than 50 per cent of the stock was marketed as U. S. Grade No. 1, the balance being shipped as United States grade No. 2 and ungraded. It is estimated that in 1919-20 before grading was required only 70 per cent of the crop was graded as No. 1."

Local Points Decline

"About 50 per cent of the state's potatoes were shipped to markets in thirty states of the country. Of the 10 per cent marketed in the state about one-fourth went to Milwaukee. Of the 30 per cent shipped outside of the state about 70 per cent were billed to Chicago. Waupaca, Bloomer and Almond, which are usually the three leading shipping stations, were light shippers this past season and Antigo, Iowa, Scandinavia and Rice Lake were among the leading shippers."

ENGINE, THREE CARS TIP OVER NO FATALITIES

Wreck Occurs When Train Runs In on Passing Track From Main Line

Soo line passenger train No. 6, eastbound, was derailed at 9:15 a. m. Friday at the west switch of the west passing track one mile west of the station at Marshfield. No one was reported seriously injured. The train was proceeding at its usual speed at the time.

The locomotive and tender and two baggage cars left the rails and turned over on their sides, the smoker behind them was derailed and partly tipped over and the head trucks of the first class coach were derailed. An observation coach on the rear remained on the rails.

Fireman From Here

The train was comprised of steel coaches and the all-steel equipment is believed to have prevented a much more serious wreck. Conductor John Ray of Neenah and Engineer A. W. Beckley of Fond du Lac were in charge of the train. The fireman on the train is J. N. Fierek of Stevens Point and the baggageman J. Hume of Chicago.

Cause Not Given

No cause for the derailment was given at the divisional offices of the road here. When No. 6 reached the west switch of the west passing track at Marshfield Friday it ran in on the passing track and the derailment immediately followed. This is at a place where the right of way passes through a deep cut on a straight of way, steep embankments towering up on each side of the road-bed.

DIES IN ORCHARD IS WORD RECEIVED IN F. HIRZY DEATH

Remains of Local Man Who Passed Away in Austria Laid to Rest

Beside Those of Parents

After several weeks of suspense, members of the late Ferdinand Hirzy's family have received details of his death in Austria on June 13.

It will be recalled that Mr. Hirzy left Stevens Point on April 8, going to Pittsburgh for a week's visit with relatives and was joined there by Mr. and Mrs. Nick Miller. The party spent another few days at Newark, N. J., and in New York city before sailing for Europe. They landed at Cherbourg, France. Mr. and Mrs. Miller going thence to Alsace and to Germany for a visit with relatives, while Mr. Hirzy proceeded to his boyhood home at Hennedorf, Austria, where he had extensive property holdings.

For a couple of days before June 13 Mr. Hirzy felt slightly indisposed but as he had had occasional attacks of stomach trouble for several years he paid but little attention. After lunch on Tuesday, the 13th, he took a stroll through his orchard and when several neighbors came to visit him a few hours later, search was made and his lifeless body found under a tree.

Because of the suddenness of his death, a post-mortem was held by Hennedorf physicians, who found that heart trouble was the cause.

The remains were taken to Hennedorf, some three miles distant, and funeral services held there the following Friday morning, practically the whole village attending. A band volunteered its services and headed the long procession which marched from the church to the cemetery, where interment took place beside the deceased's parents, who passed away many years ago.

The principal mourner was Mr. Hirzy's oldest daughter, who has always lived in Austria. Members of the family in Stevens Point are the son, Ferdinand, Jr., and three daughters, Mrs. Joseph F. Hein, Misses Rose and Leona Hirzy.
